TRADE AND FINANCE.

The record for the price of a seat on the New York stock exchange was broken recently, when H. E. Montgomery paid $80,000 for a seat that was bought in 1869 for $400.

The crops of 1931 in Manitoba were very large, official returns showing 50,500,000 bushels of wheat, 27,796,000 bushels of oats, 6,336,000 bushels of barley, and 4,800,000 bushels of potatoes.

The American Sugar Refining company, commonly called the sugar trust, has recently paid off its mortgage of $10,000,000, which was made in 1891 and would not have matured until 1911.

The Association of Merchants in Berlin has sent to the federal council a memorial asking for the legislative regulation of trade combinations in order that the artificial raising of prices may be avoided.

According to the estimate of the Railroad Gazette, 4,518 miles of railroad were built in the United States in 1901, Texas leading (537 miles), in the list of states and territories, with Oklahoma (398) second, and West Virginia third.

Strange Matrimonial Record.
Married five times and now complainant in two divorce suits pending in the same court is the peculiar matrimonial record of Mary Fields, of Lexington, Ky. The strange state of affairs was discovered by the woman's attorney, who brought suit for her against William Fields for abandonment and found that a similar charge was pending against Frederick Foster. The attorney is puzzled as to the proper proceedings, as a prosecution for bigamy may follow. The woman is but 32 years old.

THE BALTIMORE & OHIO RAIL- ROAD AND THE CIVIL WAR, 1861-1865.

It was the first and most desirable point of vantage coveted by both the Federal and Confederate armies. In May, 1861, the four Federal advance columns concentrated at Parkersburg, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Harper's W. Va., and at Washington. To retain the advantage, the Federal government established block houses along the railroad from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, besides forts at Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Piedmont and New Creek (Keyser). The B. & O. was the base of operations for the Federal army for nearly four years and from which the government could not take advance until November, 1864. The B. & O. was the means of communication between the West and the Army of the Potomac, and was consequently in a continual state of siege.
Harper's Ferry, the key to the Shenandoah Valley, first framed through the fanatical attempt of John Brown, in defying the laws and customs of his country, was captured and recaptured eight times in three years. The Government Arsenal and armories which were located there, were destroyed by the government to prevent its capture. One hundred and seventy-nine battles of greater or less importance were on or adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, not taking into consideration the innumerable skirmishes.

PURSUED BY A BEAR.

Youth Kidnaps Two Tiny Bruins and Is Compelled by Their Mother to Run for His Life.

From Watertown, N. Y., a correspondent writes that there has been a notable abundance of bears in the southern part of the county this spring, and besides the four full-grown bears that have been shot in and near the town of Worth no less than seven black cubs have been captured alive.

Two other cubs, also captured in Worth, where their dam was shot, are "Gaston" and "Happy Hooligan," the very lively mascots of the Thirty-ninth Separate company.

Only a few days ago a small boy of Worth came across a hollow log, and, with all of a boy's ignorance of fear, crawled into it to investigate.
He found two black bear cubs about

ONE UNDER EACH ARM.

four weeks old, took one under each arm and started for home.

He had gone less than a quarter of a mile when he heard the mother bear smashing along through the underbrush behind him, and when she came in sight the boy dropped one of the cubs and ran with the other. The old bear stopped only long enough to put the cub away in a brush thicket and took up the boy's trail again.
The little fellow sprinted for 300 or 400 yards, but the cub's weight handicapped him and he was forced to drop his prize. While the old bear was nosing over the cub and licking the man-scent from it the boy got so far away that the bear gave up the chase.

DICK LED IN PRAYER.

Ohio Parrot Set a Ministerial Conference to Laughing and Broke Up the Meeting.

"Dick," the Deal house parrot, of Bucyrus, O., that was sold to a New York man for $200, has a record for breaking up a ministerial conference which was held in the hotel parlors and had become a weekly affair.
Dick was an attentive listener for several weeks, and then decided to get into the game himself. A minister opened the meeting with prayer, and suddenly Dick broke in with "O Lord, vouchsafe to us Thy presence this afternoon."

The minister was disconcerted, and there was a snicker among the as-

"NOW, WILL YOU BE GOOD?"

ssembly. The minister began again, but Dick, warming to his work, piped in with "Give us seeing eyes, hearing ears and understanding hearts."

The snicker deepened into laughter, and the minister stopped, while Dick went calmly on with: "Shed upon us the light of Thy countenance and grant us Thy grace."

The ministers shouted with laughter, but when they again came to order, and a clergyman rose to speak, Dick said, in a tone of deep disgust:
"Oh, shut up."

Somebody rose, and, taking the cage into the hall, set it down with a thump.
Before the door closed they heard the bird apostrophizing himself mournfully: "Now, Dick, will you be good?" This was too much, and the meeting broke up amidst great hilarity.

A Country of Poor Beds Poor beds are the rule in the hotels of Mexico, and they are about as yielding as a doormat. The bed covering is usually just the size of the bed, and when you pull it up to your neck your feet are bare, and when you try to cover your feet you are uncovered almost to the waist.

Hard on the Poor Horse.
A self-satisfied young man in Atchison called on his lady love to take her out driving. While he was waiting in the parlor for her to put the finishing touches to her costume some audacious wags painted his horse red, white and blue.

Big Lot of Freight Cars.
In the past four years, at Pittsburg, Pa., 40,578 cars have been built using over 202,890,000 pounds of iron and steel. If these cars were placed end to end, and allowing for length of coupling three feet, they would make a train 270 miles long, would carry 4,057,200,000 pounds of freight, and the total weight of cars and freight would be over 4,260,000,000 pounds.
